Forward-Looking Statement

This corporate presentation constitutes “forward-looking statements.” within the meaning of applicable Canadian securities laws. Forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of the words such as “anticipates,” or “believes,” “budget,” “estimates,” “expects,” or “is expected,” “forecasts,” “intends,” “plans,” “scheduled,” or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain actions, events or results “could,” “may,” “might,” “will,” “would,” or be taken, occur or be achieved.

These factors may cause our actual performance and financial results in future periods to differ materially from any estimates or projections of future performance or results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements do not take into account the effect that transactions or non-recurring or other special items announced or occurring after the statements are made have on our business. For example, they do not include the effect of asset impairments or other changes announced or occurring after the forward-looking statements are made.

The financial impact of such transactions and non-recurring and other special items can be complex and necessarily depends on the facts particular to each of them.

We believe the expectations represented by our forward-looking statements are reasonable, yet there can be no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. The purpose of the forward-looking statements is to provide the reader with a description of management’s expectations regarding our anticipated financial performance and may not be appropriate for other purposes. Furthermore, unless otherwise stated, the forward-looking statements contained in this report are made as of the date of this report and we do not undertake any obligation to update publicly or to revise any of the included forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise unless required by applicable legislation or regulation. The forward-looking statements contained in this document are expressly qualified by this cautionary statement.

Oct 2026

Target month to begin producing our own Can Blast® sandblasting media in-house.

Bringing Can Blast® production in-house: for nearly two decades, Can Blast — our house brand of sandblasting media — has been co-manufactured by the only other BC company approved to accept post-consumer glass. New bagging equipment has now been ordered so Progressive Planet can produce it directly, adding a fully-owned revenue stream to the PozGlass™ platform.

Tariff Exposure

Progressive Planet's core US-bound product lines are not currently subject to Section 338 tariffs

NOT CURRENTLY TARIFFED

Diatomaceous earth, agricultural absorbents, and animal health products are not named categories under the current U.S. Section 338 action

What IS covered (U.S. Section 338, as amended Sep 8, 2026)

• Named categories: motor vehicles, alcoholic beverages, dairy.

• Broader annex list: wood/plywood, furniture, textiles, plastics, paper, select chemicals & agricultural inputs.

• A flat 50% duty, stacked on top of ordinary rates and Section 232— applies even to USMCA-qualifying goods.

• Escalated Sept 8: outright import bans on certain goods, effective September 29, 2026.

Where Progressive Planet stands

• PLAN exports — diatomaceous earth, agricultural/industrial absorbents, animal health products — are not listed in the current proclamation.

• Canada's dollar-for-dollar counter tariffs on U.S.-origin goods (effective Sept 8, 2026) currently have minimal impact on operations.

• Trade environment is fluid; classification will continue to be monitored with our customs broker.
